

For the past few years I have enjoyed fewer phone calls thanks to the do not call list. If I want to purchase something, I will seek it out so don't bother me. My elderly mother was plagued by all those stupid telemarketers until I put her on the list. Those nuisance calls are very bothersome and even distressing to people.